

Nomination Form

COLONEL EMMA E. VOGEL AWARD

The AMSCA Colonel Emma E. Vogel Award was established in 1997 in honor of the first Chief of the Army Medical Specialist Corps, Colonel Vogel. The Award is presented to an AMSCA member in recognition of exceptional service. Individuals to be recognized will be honored during the Biennial Meeting and will receive an AMSCA Medallion and an inscribed certificate.

Nomination Criteria:

AMSCA members may be nominated based on their participation in the organization, giving generously and willingly of their time. Participation may be as a Board or committee/task force member but is not a requirement.

The nominee, working in the tradition of Colonel Vogel will be expected to have provided exceptional service as demonstrated by leadership, personal influence, and sustained activity, all of which will have had a positive impact on the development and growth of the organization.
