The family of Mary Yeakel, the Sauk Prairie Conservation Alliance, and the Aldo Leopold Foundation hope you will join us to celebrate a life well lived and loved.

Where: Aldo Leopold Center, E13701 Levee Rd, Baraboo, WI
Schedules:
5:00 PM – Convene at the Leopold Center
6:00 PM – Remembrances
8:00 PM – Activities Conclude

Food and drink will be provided throughout the evening.

Caveats: Please bring your smile, warm memories, and passion for the land and its people.

It would help us plan if you could RSVP but don't let this be a barrier as we want as many people to join us as possible. We also recognize this is Halloween but it was the best date for the most family to be able to come from distant locales. Bring kids in costumes, pop in and out, or stay for the whole time, truly the more the merrier!

Replies & Questions: Jen Anstett, Leopold Foundation Executive Coordinator, 608-355-2079 ext. 23 or janstett@aldoleopold.org

**Note: The Leopold Center will be hosting its annual Art Day on October 31st from 10:00 AM until 4:00 PM and a s way to further honor Mary the Saul Prairie Conservation Alliance will have Saul Prairie Remembered, a painting by Victor Bakhtin, on display that day with information about the painting and the Alliance's ongoing work. Come out early to check out these local artists and see once again one of the many ways Mary invested in conservation right here in Saul County!

Memorials can be made to the Sauk Prairie Conservation Alliance, P.O. Box 403, Baraboo, WI, 53913 or the Aldo Leopold Foundation, P.O. Box 77, Baraboo, WI, 53913.
